

Wesley College offers a range of Scholarships for new students and continuing residents. The majority of the Scholarships are offered on a needs-basis and are means-tested. Due to the demand for Scholarships the Wesley College Foundation members including Old Collegians of the College raise money to support current students. We try to ensure that no student is ever turned away on financial grounds. In 2010 the following Scholarships will be available. Closing dates for all scholarships is Monday 4 January 2010. All applications are to be sent to Scholarships, Wesley College, Western Avenue, University of Sydney NSW 2006. All scholarships will be awarded before the commencement of the 2010 academic year.

The Cultural Scholar in Residence Award 2010

In 2010 one Wesley College "Cultural Scholar-in-Residence" Award to the value of $3,000 will be offered as a discount against Wesley College residential fees

Wesley College has a rich cultural life. The College has a choir, an annual art exhibition and cultural weekend; and at various times during the year College students present plays and perform in College concerts. The College possesses two grand pianos, music practice facilities, a darkroom and a pipe organ in the Chapel.

The Award is for well rounded artists or performers who have demonstrated outstanding ability in their chosen cultural pursuit and will provide leadership to the College cultural life. The Award is open to current residents of the College and to any applicants who have proven ability and leadership in cultural affairs.

The successful applicant will be required to contribute extensively to Wesley's cultural life.

Applicants should submit a written application which demonstrates, in 1,000 words or less, both their own cultural ability (including providing references and reviews) and give their plans and vision for the cultural life of the College in 2010, and how they may pursue cultural and artistic excellence into the future. The Scholarships Committee will interview applicants prior to making their decision.

The Dr David Greatorex Scholarship 2010

In 2010 Wesley College will offer a Greatorex Scholarship. This scholarship was established in 2001 through the generous gift of Dr David Greatorex, AO who was a resident of the College from 1953-54.

The scholarship is open to all students who are entering Wesley College for the first time. The holder of the award must show a general all round ability in the areas of academic, sporting and cultural ability and community service. The successful applicant must also establish a financial need to hold the scholarship. This will be understood to mean that "but for the scholarship" the student would not be able to attend Wesley College.

The award is to the value of $10,000 per annum for up to 4 years. The award is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees. The closing date for this Scholarship is 4 January 2010.

The Scholarship will be awarded before the commencement of the 2010 academic year and will be reviewed annually.

The Jessie Hope Paterson Scholarship 2010

In 2005 the Wesley College Foundation awarded the Inaugural Jessie Hope Paterson Scholarship.

This scholarship has been established through the generous gift of Ms Cathy Bray, a resident of the College from 1972 - 1974 in memory of her mother Jessie Hope Bray (nee Paterson) who died when Cathy was 6 months old and her brothers were aged 4 - 16 years.

The scholarship is to be awarded to a student who has:

1. suffered the death of a close friend or family member or has experienced emotional trauma, and

2. who, but for the scholarship would be unable to attend Wesley College

The scholarship will be awarded by Cathy Bray on the recommendation of the Master and the Scholarships' Committee. The scholarship to the value of half College fees, taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees. The closing date is 4 January 2010.

John Lindsay Allen 2010

The Scholarship is to assist students at the University of Sydney to attend Wesley College. Preference may be given to students who:

1. Are in the second or later year of their course, including a Post Graduate Degree
2. Have lived in a remote, regional or rural area of Australia before coming to University, and /or
3. Are studying the German language

The successful applicant must also establish a financial need to hold the scholarship. This will be understood to mean that "but for the scholarship" the student would not be able to attend Wesley College.

The amount of the scholarship is to be $4000 per annum, and is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees.

Joint SU Sport and Wesley College Sporting Scholarships 2010

In 2010 Wesley College Sporting Scholarships will be jointly offered by the College and Sydney University Sport.

Male and Female sporting scholarships will be offered for students of outstanding sporting ability facing financial difficulty in pursuing their academic and sporting careers. These Scholarships are for up to 50% of College semester fees and taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees.

Wesley College is a member of the Sydney University's Intercol Organisation. Eight male sports include: rowing, cricket, swimming, athletics, rugby, tennis, soccer and basketball. The eight female sports are rowing, athletics, swimming, tennis, netball, hockey, basketball and softball.

The Sporting Scholarships are for all-round sportsmen and sportswomen who participate in a wide range of activities in addition to their chosen sports. The successful applicant must be interested in contributing to an exciting and rewarding college lifestyle.

These scholarships will be awarded using the following criteria:

Sporting performances and potential; Personality and character; Scholastic achievement; Leadership; Social awareness; Community service; Financial need.

It is a requirement that the holders of the scholarships would represent Wesley College in their respective sport(s) and the relevant Sydney University Sporting Club.

A Sporting Scholarship will only be considered if the applicant has also applied for general admission to the College or is a current resident. The applicant must be an enrolled student of the University of Sydney.

Joint Faculty of Economics and Business and Wesley College Foundation Indigenous Scholarship 2010

In 2010 the Faculty of Economics and Business at the University of Sydney will offer an Indigenous Australian Scholarship in partnership with the Wesley College Foundation (WCF) to support a student studying in the Faculty and residing at Wesley College.

1. The scholarship is to be awarded in 2010 for up to 4 years, to an Australian Indigenous student who:
 - will be enrolled in the Faculty of Economics and Business at the University of Sydney and
 - will be resident at Wesley College and

- but for the scholarship, would be unable to attend Wesley College.
 - has financial disadvantage and demonstrates a potential to succeed in an area of study taught within the Faculty.
2. The scholarship will be for full payment of College Residential Fees which includes accommodation and meals. Alternatively, for those students who have their fees paid by another grant or scholarship (e.g. ABSTUDY) the scholarship can be taken as a $5,000 grant from the Faculty of Economics and Business towards living expenses (if taken as a grant, a payment of $2,500 will be made at the start of each semester). Applicants should provide CentreLink confirmation of their eligibility to receive ABSTUDY.
 3. Under normal conditions, there are up to two scholarship recipients each year. To continue to receive the Scholarship, the recipient must be enrolled full-time and maintain satisfactory academic progress.
 4. The scholarship will be awarded by the Faculty of Economics and Business and either Wesley College Foundation in consultation with the Koori Centre at Sydney University.
 5. CONFIRMATION OF INDIGENOUS DESCENT - please attach your confirmation to this application.

As this scholarship is specifically for Indigenous Australians, applicants are also required to provide confirmation that they are of Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent. This confirmation can be in the form of a letter of identity from your local Land Council, Legal Service, Medical Service, or other official Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander organisation, or a Statutory Declaration. The Koori centre also has applicants complete a 'Proof of identity' check (to establish Indigenous descent).

Applicants can contact Wesley College directly or make further enquiries through the Sydney University Koori Centre, www.koori.usyd.edu.au or email Student Liaison Officer on liaison@koori.usyd.edu.au or enquire at the Faculty of Economics and Business

Joint Wesley College & University of Sydney Vietnam Award 2010

This is a joint Award given in conjunction with the University of Sydney's International Office and Wesley College. The recipient of the Vietnam Award will be a Vietnamese national who is currently a student of the University of Sydney or is at the University of Sydney as a visiting academic during the academic year 2010. The successful applicant will exhibit both academic merit and an ability to contribute to the community life of Wesley College and will help with the College's Overseas Study Program to Vietnam.

Since 1992 Wesley College, has sponsored an Overseas Study Program to Vietnam. Each year, six Wesley students go to Vietnam to work with universities and in other course related work placements and to engage in volunteering work in Vietnam. This award has become an important part of the College's Overseas Study Program. Both the College and the University are strongly committed to further developing its significant relationship with Vietnam and with the large Vietnamese community in Sydney.

The award provides for half College fees for an academic year. College fees cover accommodation and food costs (3 meals a day) for up to 47 weeks. The award is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees.

A written application addressing the selection criteria, together with your CV must be forwarded to "Vietnam Award", Scholarships, International Office, Services Building G12, University of Sydney, NSW 2006 by 4 January 2010

The Reverend Bertram Wyllie Scholarship 2010

This scholarship honours the memory of the third Master of the College, Rev. Bert Wyllie.

The Wyllie Scholarship is given to assist a student with fine academic potential who, for financial reasons, would find it difficult to attend College or the University without financial assistance.

In 2010 the scholarship will be to the value of half the College fees and is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees.

The Reverend Norman Webb Scholarship 2010

This scholarship honours the memory of the fourth Master of the College, Rev. Norman Webb. The Webb Scholarship is given to assist a student with fine academic potential who, for financial reasons, would find it difficult to attend College or the University, without financial assistance. In 2010 the scholarship will be to the value of half the College fees and is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees.

The Robson Bryant Scholarship 2010

This scholarship is for the best university entrance mark to the University of Sydney for an applicant who becomes a resident of Wesley College in 2010.

It is to the value of $2,250 per annum and taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees.

No separate application for this Scholarship is required as the College receives notification of the UAI of all our applicants (as indicated on the application form).

WCF Indigenous Scholarships 2010

In 2005 Wesley College awarded two inaugural Indigenous Scholarships. This scholarship has been established by the Wesley College Foundation (WCF) through the generous support of Old Collegians and members of the Wesley College Foundation.

1. The scholarship is to be awarded to:
 - An Australian Indigenous student of the University of Sydney who will be resident at Wesley College, and
 - Who, but for the scholarship, would be unable to attend Wesley College.

2. The scholarship to the value of full Wesley College residential fees, and is to be taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees or as a living allowance (to the value of half the College residential fees) for those students who have their fees paid by another grant or scholarship (e.g. ABSTUDY). Applicants should provide CentreLink confirmation of their eligibility to receive ABSTUDY.

3. The scholarship will be awarded by the Wesley College Foundation on the recommendation of the Master and the Scholarships' Committee.

Applicants can contact the College directly or make enquiries through the Sydney University Koori Centre, www.koori.usyd.edu.au or email Student Liaison Officer on liaison@koori.usyd.edu.au

The Assoc Professor Allan Bromley Scholarship 2010

This Scholarship honours the memory of the Associate Professor Allan Bromley.

In 2010 Wesley College will offer the Associate Professor Allan Bromley Scholarship. Associate Professor Bromley was a resident in Wesley College (fr 1964) and was a member of the College Council until his death in 2002. Associate Professor Bromley made provision in his will for a bequest to the College. This Scholarship is offered as part of the Bromley Bequest.

The Scholarship will be awarded by Mrs Anne Bromley on the recommendation of the Master and Scholarships Committee to a student entering Wesley College for the first time who shows all-round potential in academic, sporting and cultural areas.

In order to honour the memory of Associate Professor Bromley; the recipient will also be the first member of their family to attend University and who but for the scholarship could not afford to attend Wesley College.

The Scholarship will be awarded before the commencement of the 2010 academic year.
The scholarship is to the value of $10,000, and will be taken as a discount against college residential fees.

The Dennis A Ahlburg Scholarship 2010

In 2010 Wesley College Foundation will offer the Prof Dennis A Ahlburg Scholarship. This scholarship has been established through the generous gift of Professor Dennis A Ahlburg, a resident of the College from 1969-1972. Professor Ahlburg attended Wollongong High School and University of Sydney and is currently head of the Leeds Business School at the University of Colorado in Boulder, Colorado.

The scholarship is open to students who are entering Wesley College and studying in the Faculty of Economics and Business. The holder of the award must be studying in the Faculty of Economics and Business and the successful applicant must also establish a financial need to hold the scholarship. This will be understood to mean that "but for the scholarship" the student would not be able to attend Wesley College.

The award is to the value of $4,000 per annum and will be reviewed each year. The award is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees

The Frank Simpson Residential Scholarship 2010 (will not be available in 2010)

In 2007 Wesley College Foundation will offer the inaugural Frank Simpson Scholarship. This scholarship has been established through the generous gift of Mr Frank Simpson a resident of the College from 1939-42. Frank attended Newcastle Boys' High School and was awarded 3 scholarships to study at the University of Sydney and to reside at Wesley College. Mr Simpson would like to support students who wish to study Medicine, particularly those prepared to practice in country and regional centres where the need is greatest.

The scholarship is open to students who are enrolled in the MBBS graduate-entry medical degree at the University of Sydney. The successful applicant must also establish a financial need to hold the scholarship. This will be understood to mean that "but for the scholarship" the student would not be able to attend Wesley College.

Preference will be given to applicants holding a Bonded Medical Place at Sydney University, however others enrolled in the MBBS graduate-entry course who have a commitment to rural practice, may apply.

The Scholarship is to the value of full residential fees for a student – in 2010 $13,000 per annum and the award is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees

The Scholarship is awarded for up to two years and will be reviewed annually. As two scholarships were offered in 2009 and unless these students discontinue their study and residency in 2010, this Scholarship will next be offered in 2011.

WCF Indigenous Scholarships Endowment Fund 2010

In 2007 the Foundation gratefully accepted Greg Alt's (fr 1964) offer to lead an Endowment Appeal for Indigenous Scholarships in order to ensure the sustainability of the Wesley Indigenous Scholarships program (established in 2005) and to support an increase in the number of Indigenous graduates from the University of Sydney.

In 2009 a Scholarship of $6,000 was offered. It will be offered in 2010 depending on the continuation of the student and subject to funds being available. This award is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees

The Linden Edwards Scholarship 2010

A scholarship established by Ms Deborah Edwards fr 1976 and the Edwards family in memory of her sister Linden Edwards (fr 1974) who was an Old Collegian and College Councillor. The scholarship of a minimum $5000 a year is awarded preferably to a student from a country area. This year with the support of friends this scholarship was increased to $6000. This Scholarship is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees

The Edwin Hocking Remote Scholarship 2010

Mr Matthew Hocking (fr 2005) has established an annual $3,000 scholarship to be named the Edwin Hocking Scholarship in memory of his grandfather. Matthew Hocking is an Old Collegian from Broken Hill who graduated in 2007. The Edwin Hocking Remote Scholarship will be awarded to a public school student from a rural or remote area of Australia. The Scholarship is taken as a discount against Wesley College residential fees.

Wesley College Awards 2010

As well as the above Scholarships, Wesley College makes a number of awards based on the academic achievement of current and continuing students. These awards can not be applied for, as they are distributed on the recommendation of the Academic and Scholarships Committee and based on highest academic results in various disciplines.

They include the following:

- Robson Bryant Scholarship ($750 for best UAI of student entering first year of undergraduate study)
- Bennett ($400 for best result in Medical Science & Pharmacy)
- Chapman ($400 for best result in Health Sciences, Allied Health & Nursing)
- Dawson ($750 for most outstanding overall result for 2007)
- Dwyer ($400 for best result in Commerce, Economics, Agricultural Economics)
- Eisenklam ($400 for best result in Engineering & Architecture)
- Kippax ($400 for best result in Law)
- Grainger ($400 for best result in Science (including Psychology))
- Robson ($400 for best result in Languages, Humanities, Music & Visual Arts) ("Reginald Robson Scholarship")
- Harrington ($400 for best result in Veterinary Science & Agricultural Science)
- John Irvine Hunter Scholarship - - $2,250 for the best pass of a student entering their final year of undergraduate study. The John Irvine Hunter Scholarship was established by the College Council and the Old Collegians Association in 1936 in memory of Old Collegian Professor John Irvine Hunter (fr 1917 – one of the first 8 students enrolled in the College) a Professor of Anatomy who died in London in 1924 while still in his twenties.