

TRANSPORT

Travel to the City From Domestic Airport and International Airport

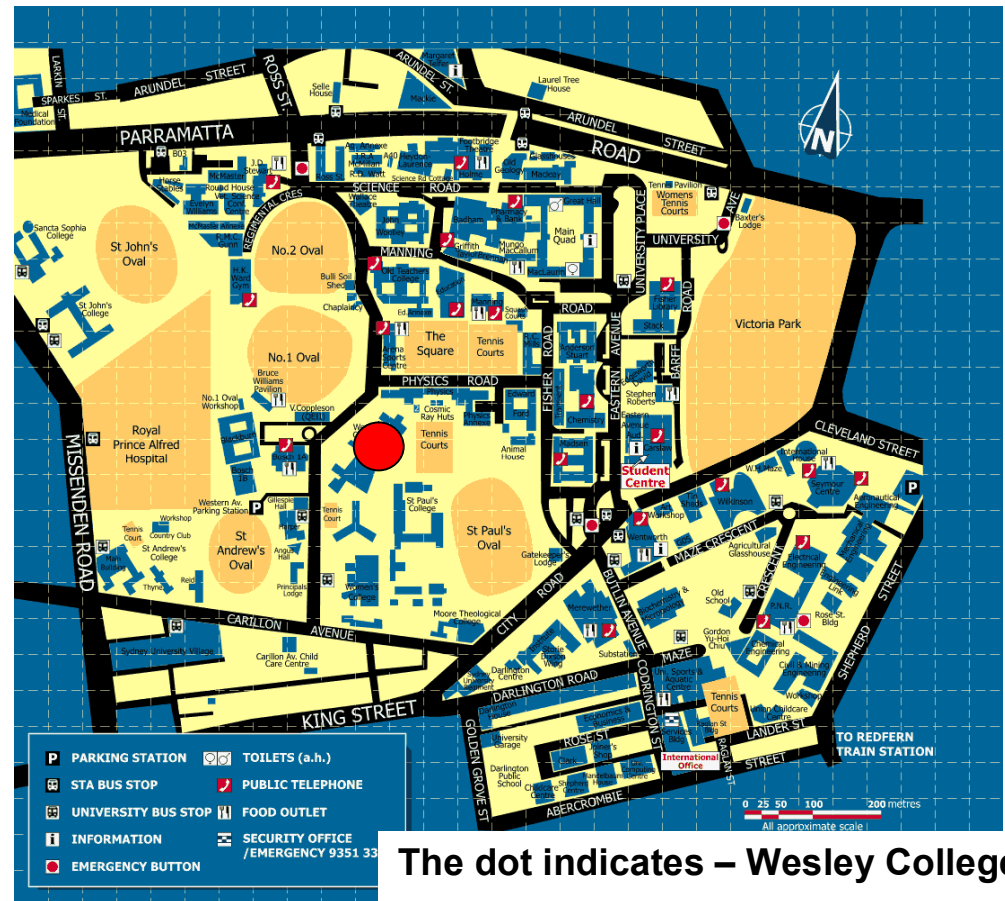

Airport Link is a fast and convenient way to reach the centre of Sydney (Central Railway Station). Trains run approximately every 10 minutes and the journey into the city takes only 13 minutes and costs around $12. The international and domestic rail stations link directly to Central Station.

Transport from Central Station - you can catch a bus to the University at a cost of $1.60. Use Bus numbers 436, 437, 438, 480, 483 and ask for the Ross Street Entrance of the University. Get out at this stop and walk into the University and follow the road past two playing ovals on your right. The college is on your left, just after Physics Road.

Sydney Bus Timetables www.sydneybuses.info click on Service Maps - then University Maps - then Sydney Uni - Parramatta Road. This website will give you a map of the University bus route from Central Station.

The State Transit Website – www.131500.com.au – has useful information regarding public transport options, including a trip planner function that will provide you with detailed information on how to get there.

Taxi's – are available from all railway stations and airports. The journey from the airport will cost around $25 to $35.

The dot indicates – Wesley College
